Narrative:

CR No: 260003379-001 Written By: RFRAMIREZS (48027) Date: 03/02/2026 10:41 AM

Officers were dispatched to 26695 Ross, after RP/ Adrienne spent the morning texting 911 regarding her incarcerated husband, Conrad, stating he was suicidal and needed to go to the hospital.

Dispatch discovered Conrad was incarcerated at MDOC in Milan MI. Adrienne was calling Milan as well. Officers arrived and did not locate Conrad at the location. Adrienne did not answer the door.

Shortly after, Adrienne then called 911 stating that Conrad was at the location and she has a PPO. Dispatch advised that the PPO was not served.

Upon arrival, the side door was unlocked. I yelled in for Adrienne. Adrienne ran out yelling [redacted] Adrienne stated she did not know where Conrad was, but she has a PPO and needs him to go to the hospital. At this time, I was very confused as Dispatch stated Conrad was currently incarcerated. Adrienne stated she was going to call her neighbor Anne, one house west. At this time a male and two females come outside. The male identified himself as Conrad. Conrad, who is a veteran, and has been in prison for the last 6 months, was very confused himself. Conrad stated he just got out of prison this morning and was coming home.

I read the conditions of the PPO to Conrad from Adrienne's phone. Adrienne stated she would send me the PPO via email.

Anne, who is friends with both Conrad and Anne went to get Conrad a bag of clothes. Anne could not locate Conrad's phone. Conrad was given pictures (with Anne's phone) of the PPO so he can appeal the PPO.

I completed the PPO proof of service at the station, and it was sent to PPO@3rdcc.org. I also attached both to the report.
